1. My name is Edy Hernandez-Uberia and I am a citizen of the Dominican Republic. I do not speak English.

2. I was sleeping when approximately eight armed Federal agents came into my apartment and arrested me on May 15, 2007. The agents pointed guns at me and my aunt during my arrest. I was arrested where I live at 3349 Hull Avenue, Apt. E, Bronx, New York.

3. I was terrified and frightened when I signed police forms about my search and my Miranda rights.

4. I did not understand or read the police forms I signed. I do not remember the agents telling me I could remain silent or refuse to give them a consent to search. They told me I would be released if I talked to them.

5. The agents immediately searched my apartment when they entered and then asked me to sign a police form.

6. The agents told me I could go home if I spoke to them and they told me they would get a warrant to search my home if they wanted to.

7. I did not voluntarily waive my rights to remain silent. I did not voluntarily consent to a search. I was frightened and confused by the police. I signed the papers they put in front of me.
